The ZBA meets the second Monday of the month at 6:00 p.m. as needed. A per meeting remuneration is provided.

Short summary: the Board of Review has authority to change current year's assessments and consider valuation determinations, personal property status, real and personal property classification determinations, requests for correction of current year's taxable value of property.

The Board of Review meets in March of each year and if there is business to conduct, in July and/or December. Members receive an hourly wage.
